A Humorous Word Problem for Sewists

by HL Carpenter

Instructions:

Read the Math Story and answer the question at the end.

Math Story:

Notice ink stain on ironing board cover. Decide to make a patchwork cover to use up remnant stash. Need white thread.
Add Item #46: "patchwork ironing board cover" to project list.

Decide to repurpose the clearance cover to fit existing ironing board.

Remove Item #46 from project list.
Add repurposed cover to project list.

Sew repurposed cover.
